THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By Gallaway, Hampton & Co.) MEMPHIS, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1867. (Volume Nine—Number 219

THE DAILY AVALANCHE

Ned Buntline is delivering temperance lectures in New York State.

Madison C. Johnson, of Lexington, decides that acting Governor Stevenson of Kentucky continues in office until August next.

A gardner near Montgomery, Alabama, sold last year $3300 worth of white head cabbages, the product of one acre of land.

Andrew Johnson was burned in effigy, with much circumstance and ceremony, in Montrose, Pennsylvania, on Thursday evening last.

An Indiana negro has been sunstruck, the first case of the kind ever heard of. It's all a result of the Civil Rights bill—being placed on equality with whites.

Attorney General Stanberry is preparing an opinion, setting forth that all persons paroled by the recent amnesty proclamation have a right to register and to vote.

Parisian ladies have a club, and a room where they meet, smoke, play cards, billiards, and take their petit verre. Husbands are forbidden within the inclosure.

General Sickles has [illegible] the Republicans of New Y[illegible] policy as commander of th[illegible] of military etiquette.

It is rumored at [illegible] tion into Mexican [illegible] Santa Anna's friend[illegible] support of European [illegible] without foundation.

Thursday Thomas S. P[illegible] (Kentucky) Monitor, was fine[illegible] an assault upon J. G. Ford, edito[illegible]thern Shield. Pettit assaulted Ford by kicking him and pulling his nose.

For the information of colored men we announce that every one in the State, two years of age, has been, or will be assessed a poll tax for the present year. Two dollars, we believe, is the price of negro suffrage.

October 8th, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Ohio and Iowa will vote; and November 5th, New York New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri and Nevada; Colorado, November 12th.

The cholera has broken out among the troops on Governor's Island, New York, and communication with the city has been interdicted. It is said the epidemic prevails to an alarming extent.

Thomas C. Calcutt, Collector of the third district of Brooklyn, New York, is charged with defrauding the Government out of the tax on four hundred and eleven barrels of whisky, amounting to upwards of $42,000.

The yellow fever is bad at Key West. Third Engineer Conover, of the United States steamer Lenapo, and two more of the hands employed on the Gulf cable, have fallen victims to the epidemic.

The Bolivar (Tennessee) Bulletin informs us that Rev. Francis P. Mullaly is about to become the pastor of the Presbyterian church in that place. He is a brother of the talented editor of the New York Metropolitan Record.

The Florence Journal says General C. M. Wilcox is sojourning in that place among his old army comrades. He is the guest of General O'Neal, and as genial and clever in his social converse as was to be expected in one who was ever so gallant and chivalrous in the tented field.

A man in Washington, D. C., who had been suffering from a closed jaw for more than three months, and who was so far gone that his case was despaired of by more than twenty physicians, was cured by an old woman, who made repeated applications of spirits of turpentine to his face and neck.

A Washington dispatch of the 15th says that numerous suits are to be brought before the courts of the District of Columbia to test the constitutionality of the confiscation act. Eminent counsel have been retained to try the issue, including Caleb Cushing, it is said, for Dr. Garnett.

The editor of the Radical organ in St. Louis thinks that the great losses of his party in Maine are attributable to the prohibitory liquor law, and says it ought to be a warning to Radicals elsewhere. We fear that the party of "high moral ideas" are going back on their creed. Their "virtue" can't stand adversity.

A negro named Charles Brown, in a letter to the New Orleans Times, recently, thus talks of the future of his race: "In a few years it will not be a question whether there will be schools for colored children, but it will be whether white children will be admitted to our institutions of learning. The bottom rail is on the top, and Yankees, as well as the minority, must take a back seat."

A meeting of the sub-committees appointed by the merchants of Baltimore, to solicit subscriptions in aid of the sufferers by yellow fever at Galveston and New Orleans, report having obtained so far the sum of $6,245 50, which was directed to be equally divided between the two suffering cities, and the committees instructed to continue their labors.

The President will soon issue instructions to the Southern commanders to appoint a uniform day of election in all the districts, the registration to opened fourteen days before such election, in order to allow those enfranchised under the amnesty proclamation to register their names preparatory to voting. It is said that Grant will oppose this whole movement.

In Richmond, Indiana, recently, three brothers started to the woods hunting, when a younger brother determined upon going with them, but the older ones remonstrated against his going; the younger brother still kept following them up, when the older ones, becoming angry, whipped and beat him to death. They then concealed the body of their brother in the woods.

An Omaha dispatch says a battalion of four hundred soldiers recently arrived there, en route to the plains. Before leaving, they entered the American Transfer Company's warehouse, drove out the watchmen, stove in the heads of the whisky and wine barrels, got very drunk, and broke open canned fruit and oysters. The subordinate officers are said to have been as bad as the men, and the Colonel had no control of them.

The Montana Post's August 31st correspondence gives a report of an exploring party to the head waters of the Yellowstone. They traveled eight days through the country, and represent it as appearing smooth and rolling, with long level plains intervening. These swelling crests are covered with craters from four to six feet in diameter. The plains are dotted with holes from six to twelve inches wide, constantly emitting flames of burning streams of molten brimstone, with a sharp whistling sound. All accounts represent it to be a most wonderful country.

A petition is now being signed by the French exhibitors and the population of Paris, to beg that the palace of the Champ de Mars, as well as the gardens around it, should not be done away with, but preserved as they are. On the other side, the military authorities are most anxious that the Champ de Mars should, at the end of the exhibition, be restored to its former use, viz: the drilling, reviews, and maneuvres of the troops garrisoned around Paris. No circumstance could better indicate the relative feeling of the two great elements in governmental France—the people and the military.

A German woman in East Saginaw, Michigan, recently gave birth to five children at one confinement.

The National Intelligencer, of the 12th, says of the President's recent amnesty proclamation, that "it places the great mass of the Southern people in an attitude to assert and maintain their rights and privileges, and if, when finally passed upon by the Supreme Court, obstructions are still interposed by unauthorized agencies, military or otherwise revolutionary, it will again become the duty of the Executive to interfere and carry into effect, at every hazzard, the mandate of the judicial authority. And this, the country may rely upon, will be done to the letter."

A young married lady of New York, who can boast of a fair amount of personal charms, was with her mother in an Eighth avenue car the other day. In rearranging some portion of her toilet, a pin was needed, when an affable specimen of the genus homo handed her the article she craved. Both ladies thanked him. Imagine their amazement to read in a paper the next day: "Will the young lady who borrowed a pin on the car yesterday meet her adored admirer to-morrow at ———, or send a note to H.," etc. The lady's husband accompanied her to the place of rendezvous, and politely returned the pin his wife had borrowed.

LOCAL NEWS.

AN AMERICAN ADVENTURER.—Several of the papers notice the death, recently, in Baltimore, of a singular personage, from whose life instructive lessons might be drawn. This was the notorious George Bickley, the founder of the Knights of the Golden Circle—a man to whom more properly belonged the title of adventurer than any other individual in this country. He was a man in whose character there were many flaws, but his best justification would be a truthful statement of his life, and some time when the history of the early stages of the great rebellion are fully written, the true character of the talented, handsome, vain and unscrupulous George Washington Bickley may serve to illustrate it. Few lives have been more eventful than his. An orphan boy in Virginia, he ran away at the age of twelve years, and went to New Orleans, and from that time to his death, when considerably over forty years of age, he lived a life of adventure, successes, reverses and vicissitudes. With grand ideas, great projects, immense speculations, he held that success in great undertakings was scarcely more difficult than in those of more limited character, and in some respects results justified his theory. Beginning life with many disadvantages he attained a good English and a fair classical education. He wrote a very good work on poisons and their antidotes; he became a successful professor in a respectable medical college; he wrote a number of excellent medical works, of which another party got the credit; he established, and for some time edited, a very able mechanics' paper; he wrote many creditable articles in medical journals, daily papers and literary magazines; he edited for some time a lady's magazine; he originated the foundation of a great institution of learning; he was on terms of friendship and intimacy with many distinguished politicians, professional characters and literary gentlemen. He engaged at one time extensively in agriculture and vine growing. He founded and, by years of devoted labor, made the Knights of the Golden Circle to grow until it had branches in fourteen States, and comprised an aggregate membership of seventeen thousand individuals. Lastly, he married and ran through the fortunes of three wealthy women. A man who could do all this must have been a person of more than ordinary activity, and it cannot be said that his life was wholly a blank. Before the war he had many grand projects. At one time he expected to realize a colossal fortune by the grant of coal mines in the Dominican Republic; at another, unbounded wealth was to be obtained by a monopoly of the introduction of American agricultural implements into Russia. In the formation of the Knights of the Golden Circle his inspiration probably originally came from General Quitman and Mr. Yancey, but Mr. Bickley did not intend to be the tool of any political combination. He actually planned, and his remarkable success for a time seemed to justify his hopes, to found a great military government in Mexico, of which he should be Emperor. The care with which his plans were elaborated, the curious system of laws, institutions, checks and balances which he had devised, showed that the hope of grasping an empire was the ruling idea of his life. Fate stood in his way. We have seen letters written to him by both Miramon and Juarez proffering co-operation, grants of land and other great advantages. They wished to have the help of his Knights without incurring the odium of publicly inviting them into the Mexican country. The failure of a negotiation to purchase steamships from George Law, and the decided stand of our Government in forbidding armed emigration to Mexico, delayed Bickley's plans. Then the war broke out, and the order of the Knights of the Golden Circle being composed of Southern men who were unable to leave the country, drifted into the rebellion movement, and became for a time one of its most efficient promoters. Bickley was unscrupulous and unprincipled. Nature and education had conspired to encourage these traits in his character. It would not be much use for any man who was not unscrupulous and unprincipled to aspire to be an emperor. He had warm Southern sympathies, but as logical a turn of mind that he appreciated fully the blunders made by both the great parties of the country. This brief sketch does not exhaust—in fact, it scarcely does more than suggest the eventful life and curious character of the subject of our sketch, whose fecundity of projects has been rarely equaled. The suggestion of a new discovery in science, or some new application in art, at once inspired him with some grand scheme for controlling it. The most ordinary incidents were seized by him as presenting El Dorados for adventures. Chancing to be detained at Napoleon, Arkansas, on one occasion, he was informed by an intelligent gentleman from Little Rock of the lamentable condition of the State finances and the general desire to repudiate the State debt. Bickley at once suggested a combination to buy, on time, an interest in every paper in the State, the other proprietors to have entire control and profit, except that they should advocate measures to advance the State credit. Taking advantage of this, the parties combining would buy State indebtedness at low figures and bull it up so as to realize millions on the operation. We could give dozens of similar illustrations, but we have, perhaps, exhausted the patience of our readers and said enough about this singular fellow Bickley, who was for some years a military pioneer and has lived in obscurity since.

ITEMITAS.

General Gordon Granger, United States army, of the Department of Louisiana, is at present a guest at the popular Gayoso House.

Ned Hart, a negro, was arrested for stealing a cow from Mr Nelson, on Poplar street.

A man named John Clingon was robbed of $28 while he was drunk, on Front row.

The fine new rowboat Magnolia was badly smashed yesterday afternoon while some of the members of the boat club were out rowing. It seems they ran into a coal barge.

A Confederate officer complains of an outrageous assault committed at the Stonewall House, by four residents of Grand Junction, upon an inoffensive black man named George Mitchell, who served with much credit in the Confederate army. The complainant seems to censure the Stonewall House. We know nothing else of the facts of the case.

Two prominent Italian gentlemen denationalized themselves yesterday by a regular American game of fisticuffs on Main street. This event was more noticeable as they are both men o' middle age, and their vagaries could not be attributed to the vivacity of youth.

A Radical gentleman furnishes us with an illustration of the way things are done under the County Commissioners. A poor, honest colored man died and was buried at the county expense, but all his old clothes were carried off by the county officials. His widow wished some of the old clothes to make garments for the orphan children, but she could not get any of them. After begging the county officials until tired, she has applied to the police for their assistance.

It was not Dr. Chandler, the Main street druggist, who objected in the secret loyal league, to resolutions of respect for the memory of Dr. Ramsey, and was so roughly exposed by the colored man who knew of his own ✝ Martin street intimacies It was Colonel Chandler, the chief clerk of Beaumont and the Police Department, who was thus cornered. We make the correction in justice to Dr. Chandler.

An Illinois Radical, who was an officer in the Federal army, is now running in Arkansas a plantation that works sixty-one hands. Recently a resident of this city happened to be at his place, and having observed the fact, he was frankly informed by this Radical planter, that he put down on his books just double of all that his hands drew on the credit of their share in the crop. Such is Radical regard for the negro

Three newsboys attempted to steal a basket of champagne in whisky shute, yesterday, but were discovered, and after a hard chase two of them were captured. The mackerals are getting to be an intolerable nuisance in our city. The losses from their depredations amount probably to ten thousand dollars a month, and comprise sneak thiefs, burglaries and larcenies. They are frequently arrested, confined for a few days and then let loose again, to prey upon the community. Mayor Loftand's suggestions for the establishment of a House of Refuge, would, if carried out, be a great benefit to Memphis

A shrewed Yankee is doing a thriving trace among the blacks of Memphis, hard as times are. He has a grand society of his own, and takes in all blacks who wish to join, male or female. Then to each he sells a pretty little star that is to be worn on the left breast. It is the insignia of the order, and for it a small sum is charged. Then each is told that to guarantee him or her from ever again being reduced to slavery, they should have free papers. These free papers are handsomely printed copies of Lincoln's proclamation of emancipation, and other matter, with a space for the insertion of each purchaser's name. The blacks thing this guarantees their freedom, and they buy the free papers greedily.

LIFE INSURANCE IS GOOD SENSE.—Every good man wishes to provide for his family, so that they may suffer no loss in case of his death. How can he but do so? If he invests in a speculation it may fail. If he buys bonds the title may be bad, or there may be a great depreciation in property. The revenue from houses and lands may be insufficient to support the family, which may be cheated out of the returns for such investments; but the man who insures his life in a good company, such as the Northwestern Life Insurance Company, of which Mr. Chapin is the agent for this city, may be certain that the family will surely get a large profit from every dollar invested. Such investments are perfectly safe. The capital is always secure; the dividends certain to be paid; the investment becomes undoubtedly productive. The man who invests his money in life insurance first is more prudent than he who invests in anything else first, and in thus providing for safe investments Mr. Chapin is a true philanthropist.

Liberal Advances—Supplies at Wholesale Prices

Commission for Selling Cotton $1 per Bale

To the Cotton Planters of West Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas.

THE undersigned respectfully tenders his services as Agent for the sale of your cotton in this city, and for the purchase of your supplies. The unfortunate termination of the late war, which so materially affected the best interests of the South, has also had its effect upon the commission business of this city, as transacted between planter and merchant. You doubtless well remember with what pertinacity, (previous to the war) amounting in some instances to annoyance, you were solicited for your business, at the rate of fifty cents per bale commission, free of drayage, and stored for twelve months without charge. Then (as will be again) the producer was the ruling element, and high rents, rich landlords and merchants, were the result of planters' patronage.
No people or occupation have been more seriously prostrated than planters and planting, and none so much deserve to be fostered and aided in their unfortunate changed condition.
How that aid, so much needed, has been meted out, you, I opine, too well know. Onerous government taxes in general, and a special tax upon your leading production, cotton; large profits you have had to pay upon supplies furnished; commission on sales, varying from $2 50 to $5 per bale; monthly storage at exhorbitant prices, and other expenses, as per reference to your account of sales, as a sum total, will leave you but little, if anything, upon which to rebuild your shattered fortunes, or to compete with the new order of affairs, free labor.
When I withdrew from the cotton commission business in 1860, private reasons then led me to believe that I would never engage in it again. The solicitations of many friends, that were former patrons, and a desire to promote the interest of the planting community, so far as my feeble efforts can do so, and the apparent want of gratitude exhibited to a community that in times past has tendered so materially to the prosperity of Memphis and its mercantile community, has determined me again to offer my services in the capacity as stated. The reduced stock of cotton in the United States and short supplies in the hands of New England manufacturers, has caused some advances in prices from the late depression, hence early sales may be prudent and remunerative. Such was the case the past two seasons, and many planters have had cause to regret the acting upon the too common practice of holding and drawing upon their cotton. I would advise no planter to send forward his cotton unless he wished it sold upon the first active market; it can be held at home much cheaper than in Memphis.
My charges for selling cotton will be one dollar per bale. Insurance effected in all cases, if not instructed to the contrary. Shall buy your supplies from wholesale houses, giving you the benefit of same. In short, by strict attention to your interests in all the departments of our business, I hope to merit a large share of patronage.
Very respectfully,
se4 R. A. MOON

To the Business Men, Merchants and others of Memphis.

THE Fall Trade will soon open; you will have large stocks of merchandise to dispose of, and you must let the people know it. The columns of the NORTH ALABAMIAN, published at Tuscumbia, are at your services, as one of the best mediums in North Alabama through which to extend your trade. The large and increasing trade of this section can be secured, to a great degree, by making your business known, and offering as favorable inducements as other cities.
Our terms are reasonable, and we will guarantee you will be benefitted by availing yourselves of the use of the ALABAMIAN'S columns to make your business known. Address your orders to

EDITORIAL
THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD.

TUESDAY, : : : : : : SEPTEMBER 17, 1867

In a brief local notice on Sunday, concerning the tournament at Iuka, Mississippi, which came off on Thursday and Friday of last week, we made allusion to the conduct of a Federal officer named THEAKER. It is said that he and that portion of his company which figured so flauntingly in the outrage upon decency and propriety, on the occasion referred to, belong to the Thirty-fourth Infantry, stationed at Corinth for reconstruction purposes, under the Military bill. The department which this man so shamelessly disgraced at Iuka is under the command of General ORD, whose gentlemanly bearing and soldierly honor have won for him, among the people in that department who were opposed to him in the late disastrous war, kindliness of feeling and genuine respect. Whatever may be the General's political opinions, he has never made them a pretext of wanton insult to individuals or communities, or used them as a lash to torture a helpless people who have surrendered to the arms of the Government he serves, nor do we believe he is the man to carelessly pass by such conduct in one of the subordinates of his forces. The tournament at Iuka, as given out through the papers weeks before it took place, was designed for the benevolent purpose of raising funds to assist in decently interring the harmless remains of the Confederates who fell in battle near that place, and whose uncoffined bones lay in the graves hastily dug where they had perished. Many of their names are unknown, and consequently there are no kindred or friends to take up their crumbling, neglected dust and give it that sepulture which in every Christian country the crudest civilization demands. To assist in this was the sole object of those who were instrumental in getting up these pasttimes of attraction, as it was of those who attended. Nothing connected with the questions of the past war, or the authority of the Government, in its present or future rulings, was intended. No disrespect to either the soldiery or flag of the country was conceived or meant to be exhibited. Nor was it done in word or action. A large crowd assembled on Thursday, two-thirds of which was composed of ladies, and the utmost order and decorum prevailed. Not even in the town could we learn that a personal disturbance occurred, or that the presence of civil or military power was thought of as necessary to the peace of the place. There was no actual or threatened difficulty when the sun descended on the exercises of this first day. But the scene which the visitors at Iuka witnessed the succeeding morning could well have warranted the belief, in the minds of those who knew no better, that the hours of the preceeding day had been devoted to no other thoughts than rebellion to the Government and insult to its flag. This Captain THEAKER—with thirty-six men, and a great, lubberly, red headed piece of impudence as a Lieutenant, who had come up in the night from Corinth—when the people began to assemble again upon the tilting ground, whisked through the entrance gate with bayonetted and loaded muskets, took possession of the judges' stand with a guard, nailed up a large flag, and stationed the other soldiers upon the seats of the amphitheater. And this, too, was done with the menacing air of the blackguard and bully, on the part of this officer, who seemed to feel, if he did not, that he was committing a cowardly and dastardly outrage, an action far from the true sense of a soldier's duty as the champion and protector of his country's honor and glory; and an act as uncalled for and unwarranted as it was shameless and shamefully bestial. No citizen present on the occasion—neither looker on or participant—had objection to the national emblem's floating from the stand, or to the presence of any number of officers and soldiers of the army. They had congregated there to give aid for the decent burial of the unhoused dead, dreaming of nought which could be offensive to God, or raise the ire of man; their actions were open and in the light of day; not giving expression to the blighted hopes of their hearts, not even murmuring against their country's vassalage, or the fate that desolated their fields and blackened their chimneys, but lending their impoverished help to secure for those who had been felled by shot and shell in the common struggle of the South, a resting spot where the turf over their breasts may lay untrampled by the horse's hoof or unfurrowed by the plowman's share. But the manner in which this contemptible janizary bore his hand and forced his intrusion disgusted the general sense of propriety, and made the ex-Confederate's cheek mantle with a blush that the banner of the Union had been thus degraded by one unfit to wield its sword or bear its commission. NAPOLEON, when the ambulances bearing the wounded and captured enemy passed by him, on an occasion so celebrated in history, raised his hat in respectful acknowledgement of those gallant but helpless men; he thundered his cannon against them when they stood in hostile line, but the great heart of the warrior swelled with sympathy for them wounded and in sorrow for them dead. We might tell that the Prussian Marshal, SCHWERIN, fell at the battle of Prague, upon Austrian soil, where he was buried and the spot marked with a monument; that when, in less than a year after, the Emperor JOSEPH, of Austria, reviewed his army near the place, he made his veteran battalions form in line and fire "salutes in honor of the hero," while he himself stood uncovered of head. We might say this and more from the honored pages of great and high souled men's deeds to show this THEAKER how poor a thing he made himself at Iuka, in the eyes of true soldiers and noble people over the entire world. But why do so, when, in his own peculiar and polished phrase he "couldn't see it?" Not satisfied with the ungallant bearing we have already mentioned, this shoulder strapped bully cavorted in the bar room of the hotel, denouncing all the people in the town as "rebels," in such scurrilous and indecent language that we must forbear to repeat it. At night the hero wound up his brave and chivalric deeds by nailing up his flag in the ball room of the hotel, where an entertainment for the guests, such as is customary at all watering places, and disconnected with the tournament, was to take place. Had he treated the people and the occasion with but ordinary civility, there would not have been a dissent. He didn't, and all were nauseated with disgust that the ill bred creature behaved so abominably. We have related the facts of these occurrences as we have learned them from good authority, but not with malice or exaggeration, and we hope that General ORD will give the matter a thorough investigation. The citizens and visitors who were witnesses to all this deserve the very highest praise for the dignified silence and unexcited manner they maintained while the doughty warrior cut his "fantastic tricks" before them. They showed themselves an orderly people, too well bred to oppose by deed the bluster of a rough.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Ravages of the Yellow Fever in Texas.

One of General Griffin's Orders Revoked.

Reported Cotton Failures in Liverpool.

Election of Delegates for the Virginia Convention.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, September 16.

Houston advices of yesterday state that the yellow fever is raging there. There has been at least a thousand cases in that city, and ten to fifteen are dying daily. Mr. Boevsel, Deputy Postmaster, died yesterday, and Captain Wallace, Assessor and Collector, late of the United States army, died to-day. Rev. Dr. Reese and Dr. A. Civey have died. The Fireman's Charitable Association provide the desolate with nurses and physic at an expense of over $200 per day.

The fever is very fatal at Hemstead, Navasak, Milliken Bayou, Chapel Hill, Benham, Lagrange, Huntsville and Allenton. The charitable associations of Houston are extending all the aid in their power to these towns. They require money, physicians and nurses.

Colonel O'Donnel, commander of the post, and all his family are sick with the epidemic.

General Griffin's order removing the Judges of the Supreme Court, has been revoked.

The cotton crop will turn out only from one-fourth to one-third of a crop, and the whole State will not reach over 50,000 or 60,000 bales for gulf shipment. The yield of corn will be ample for home consumption, and in some localities enormous.

The deaths from yellow fever in this city on Saturday and Sunday are officially reported at 102.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, September 16.

General Schofield to-day issued an order for the election of delegates to the State Convention, which is to be held on the 23d of October. One hundred and five delegates are to be elected, of which Richmond has five and Norfolk and Petersburg two each. Fourteen days previous to the election the Boards of Registration will make a final revision of their lists. The polls at Richmond will be kept open two days.

Judge Colburn, of the Hustings Court, charged the Grand Jury this morning, in which he said no discrimination on account of color or caste would be allowed in Court.

General Schofield ordered this morning that all registered voters and none others would be allowed to vote on the city subscription to the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

FROM EUROPE.

HAGUE, September 15.

The police here arrested a man named Gordester, who had in his possession 500 forged $5,000 United States notes, made here. Several bad United States bonds were offered.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 15.

The Express says that the reported cotton failures in Liverpool to-day had a tendency to stiffen prices. It appears that some firms there were finding it difficult to renew their obligations which are now falling due, and failures, in the present condition of the market abroad, it is feared, will be the result.

The Jackson, Tennessee, Whig, of Saturday, has reached us, and brings about the same information concerning the assassination of Major Thos. H. Hartmus, we published in Sunday's paper. The ball entered the abdomen near the navel and passed out through the liver, inflicting a wound from which, though not dead early yesterday morning, he is bound to die. The greatest excitement prevails amongst the citizens in regard to this terrible and cold blooded affair. As we have already published, the murderers are members of Brownlow's militia. They made good their escape, but the people of Jackson are determined to hunt them up and bring them to justice, if such a thing remains in the State of Tennessee.]

Boyd & Co., Solicitors of Patents, 206 Pine street, St. Louis, Missouri, officially report to the AVALANCHE the following patents granted Tennessee, Kentucky, Texas and Louisiana inventors for the week ending September 3, 1867: J. E. Finley, Memphis, Tennessee, churn; T. St. Clair Ferriss, Nashville, Tennessee, truss pad; T. H. Hornsby, Simpsonville, Kentucky, manufacture of cannon; J. C. Walker, Waco Village, Texas, grain meter; A. Barbarin, New Orleans, Louisiana, lightning arrester.

DIED.

At her residence, corner of Pontotoc and Tennessee streets, MRS. BRIDGET REID, in the thirty-third year of her age. Her remains will be interred this afternoon, at two o'clock.

The visitation of death saddens the household, but especially is the pang of his shaft felt most keenly when it severs the chain of two loving hearts, bound together in the first months of wedded life. Mrs. Reid has been swept to the shoreless river of eternity, just as existence was sweet with its flowers of happiness blooming on the stream of Time. An estimable lady, a dutiful daughter, and an exemplary wife, she filled all the relations of life without exception. The bereaved husband and mourning friends have the heartfelt sympathies of all who have heard the dreadful rumble of the grave clod upon the heart treasures of the living.

At the residence of M. R. Watkins, on Arkansas river, at four o'clock a.m., on the 9th instant, N. LOVITT LAWRENCE, in the 48th year of his age.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The members of the Hibernian Mutual Relief Society are requested to assemble at their Hall in the rear of the St. Peter's church, to attend the funeral of PATRICK McCARTY, at half past one o'clock to-day.

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS.

IN compliance with a pledge made in their communication of February last, to the Honorable Mayor and Board of Aldermen, the

Memphis Gaslight Company

HAVE DETERMINED TO

Reduce the Price

On their sales of Gas, supplied

On and After the 1st of December Next

To the Lowest Rates then deemed possible, allowing

A SMALL PROFIT

On the capital invested, and pledge themselves that the price then established shall range among

THE LOWEST RATES CHARGED

Their Apparatus, lately at great expense improved and extended, enables them to supply as pure, strong and brilliant a gaslight as that supplied anywhere in the United States.

With reference to a much threatened opposition in business, which they do not deem probable, the Company hereby give notice to their patrons and the public, that in case of an actual competition they will supply their demands at

One-third or Less than One-third

The rates established by such competitors.

Their Works were constructed with a view of remunerating the owners for their investments, as well as for public convenience. Notwithstanding such intention they will ever sell or

Public Sale

OF

300 ACRES SUBURBAN LAND

ON TEN YEARS' CREDIT.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 14th of November, 1867, about three hundred acres Field and Forest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the old State Line Road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement of value.

In stating the advantages of this property, I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption and is free from any incumbrance.

THE SUBDIVISION OF THE GROUNDS will be in lots of about Five Acres, according to plans to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers. The avenues will be opened and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.

BEING DETERMINED TO SELL, I shall offer the following liberal

TERMS:

One-tenth Cash, the balance in TEN ANNUAL INSALMENTS, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGIMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is a labor saving invention, as well as an invaluable remedy in scurvy, scald head, eruptions of the skin and piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the teeth whitened and cleansed, plate and jewelry cleaned, stains effectually removed from carpets, furniture, clothes, paint, varnish or marble with the greatest facility and without injury to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known soap which will wash flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without felting or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties, and which is so innocuous and safe. It is a home invention, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the South, and eventually will extend over the Yankee States, North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by C. P. McGIMSEY, Memphis, Tenn., and can soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISMENORRHEA, ANIMEA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing cli[illegible]

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup o[f] Io[illegible] Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospita[ls] [illegible] substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHE[ST] [illegible] TIC DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. [illegible] in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been ap[illegible] [DI]SEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children su[illegible] [ENGORGEMENT OR OBSTR]UCTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup [illegible] Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases [illegible] OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough [illegible] and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is a[illegible] [liab]le to imitations.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—D[illegible]'s (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Me[dicine]) [illegible] Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed [illegible] cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as GASTRITIS, GASTRALGIA, LONG AN[illegible] [DIG]ESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE L[IVER] [illegible].

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an effervesing mineral and gaseous water to be drank at meals, either pure or mixed with wine.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from Difficult or Suspended Menstruation. It is especially recommended to persons unable to digest the ordinary medicines containing iron.

This celebrated preparation has the advantage to prevent all tendency to constipation, and to contain a certain portion of manganese, considered by the most eminent medical men as indispensable in cases of treatment by ferruginous medicines.

No More Copaiba and Cubebs—Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other medicines have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more chronic cases.

Chartered by an Act of the Legislature of Mississippi, passed February 16, 1867.

THE following receipt from the State Treasurer exhibits the fact that the Society has paid into the State Treasury the sum of Five Thousand Dollars for the benefit of the State University:

COPY OF RECEIPT.

No. 127—State of Mississippi Five Thousand Dollars, State Treasury, Jackson:

Received of W. D. Lyles, President, etc., per C. B. White, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars in full of Auditor's receipt warrant No. 127, dated July 18, A. D. 1867, in his favor, on account of University of Mississippi, under 8th section of Act of February 16, 1867, entitled an Act Incorporating the Mississippi Agricultural, Educational and Manufacturing Aid Society.

Given under my hand and seal at office this 18th of July A. D. 1867. JOHN H. ECHOLS, State Treasurer.

In the Three Preliminary Distributions and Grand Scheme, there will be distributed 2,350 premiums, amounting to $253,950 in 9,000 certificates.

MARTYRS TO CARELESSNESS.—If all the teeth that have been ruined by neglect could be strung together, they would reach thrice round the world. There may have been some excuse for this havoc in days gone by, when there was no absolute safeguard against dental decay in existence, but there is no apology for it now. Fragrant SOZODONT, the world renowned antiseptic dentifrice, as certainly protects the teeth against decay, as oil prevents steel from rusting, or water arrests the progress of fire.

THE CHANCES OF GROWING RICH.—Transactions in real estate are the surest tests of restored confidence in business and political life. Farms for one dollar, the best on Southern railway lines, and magnificent city lots for five dollars, are well calculated to attract the multitude. The sales of tickets, as we are advised, by the agencies of the Southern Asylum here and elsewhere, show that recent elections have tended greatly to reproduce public confidence in the stability of personal rights and in the restoration of former political relations of States. The two schemes of the Southern Asylum now before the public are most attractive. It is not long till the drawings occur, and the many should select tickets at once.

A POPULAR INSTITUTION.—Good clothes are more to a man than brains, more than eloquence, more than wit, more than poetry, in fact, so far as this life is concerned, they answer a man instead of a soul, consequently merchant tailors, who stand at the head of their profession, ennoble and benefit mankind. Such a firm is that of Murray & Ridgley, No. 31 Madison street. They come most appropriately from that State which has given birth to so many Presidents, and, in the words of the distinguished orator, they are in talent, business, character and manhood, "real bricks." Mr. Ridgley has just returned from the East, where he purchased a large supply of the finest styles of clothes and other goods for gentlemen's wear. These will be made up to fit customers in a manner very unlike the way store clothes fit those who wear them.

A Card from the President of the Memphis Gas Company.

To Gas Consumers and the Public:

The DAILY AVALANCHE of the 14th instant says, "A member of the Lamp and Gas Committee (of the Board of Aldermen) says that the old volunteer fire companies paid two dollars per thousand cubic feet for gas; but now the bills are rendered for public buildings, the jail and fire department, at six dollars and twenty cents. This so flatly contradicts the statement of the Gas Company that there must be some mistake." Mr. Donovan, in his late card, summing up evidence to support his allegations that the Company had broken its contract with the city, says: "I am informed by an Alderman that the fire engine houses pay at the rate of six dollars per thousand cubic feet for gas, although the city was to be furnished at half price."

When the fire department was a volunteer offering of services from the public spirited men comprising the various companies, their halls, etc., were to some extent built and furnished by donations from the public. The Memphis Gas Light Company, without thought of ever bringing so serious a charge against them, by the act, contributed half the price of the gas they consumed, and for a time we believe the city contributed the remaining half of the cost. When the volunteer fire department was abolished, and the present established, the company charged the engine houses, as it always had and still does other public buildings, full price. The contract between the city and the company provides as follows:

"Section 5. In consideration of said several grants, concessions and privileges, the Memphis Gas Light Company agree, and bind the company to furnish the city of Memphis for the use of their public lamps, gas at one-half price which they charge private consumers."

Mr. Donovan says "the company violated its contract with the city in 1864, when he was a member of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, in that it peremptorily refused to lay down mains to supply public lamps along the city landing."

The supply of public lamps has ever been a matter of great loss to the company—they knew it would be when contracting with the city—and their endeavor was to have as few as possible, hence, least in the future, when through lapse of time and the growing importance of the city and its officials, some Aldermen might think to have lamp posts at his discretion and elsewhere than the company would wish to lay down mains, the contract was written thus:

"Sec. 6. It is expressly understood and agreed upon between the Mayor and Aldermen of Memphis and the Memphis Gas Light Company, that said company SHALL ONLY BE REQUIRED TO FURNISH GAS FOR PUBLIC LAMPS ALONG THE LINE OF MAINS."

It was in 1864 agreed that the company would supply lamps on the landing with gas, provided the city would be at the expense of putting down the necessary mains, and ever afterwards allow the company free use of them, should they have occasion for their use.

Mr. Donovan further alleges that the company has violated its contract with the city, in that "it is a notorious fact and universal cause of complaint that the lamplights are in very bad condition."

In reply to this we again quote from the contract:

"Sec. 7. It is also understood and agreed upon between the contracting parties, that the corporate authorities of Memphis are always to furnish at their own expense, their public lamp-posts and lamps, and other fixtures AND KEEP THE SAME IN REPAIR."

Mr. Donovan further charges that "the quality of the gas supplied to the city is very inferior;" and the AVALANCHE of the 15th instant, speaking in the interest of his company, says: "The new company has hired men who had for years been making gas for the old company."

We claimed that they were competent and faithful men, and made as good gas for this company as they can make for any.

With these plain statements we leave the reader to form his own conclusion as to the charge of the company's having violated its contract with the city; and as to whether "an alderman," by virtue of his office ought to be expected to know anything about the city's contracts or not.

Not more than one in ten of the population of any city are interested in the price of gas. A gas company claiming to be public benefactors is "a new thing under the sun," and we trust the world will give our goodly city credit for originating the idea. The masses in no city use gas; it is a luxury or convenience used by those who can afford it. A plentiful supply of pure water, good fuel, low rents, money at easy rates of interest, and cheap provisions, are questions in which necessity gives the masses an interest, and which suggests a direction for the philanthropist.

Newspaper controversy may possibly serve to build a gas works in this age of improvement. We have not learned that it will operate one, hence having corrected a misapprehension entertained by a portion of the press, and some others, we close without presenting any new features or remark calling for a rejoinder.

Referring to our advertisement in the city papers, and with the kindest of feelings, personally, for our threatened competitors, we leave the matter for the courts, the people, and time to decide.

JAMES W. WILLIAMSON,
President Memphis Gas Light Company.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—On Friday night last, about twelve o'clock, Mr. C. W. Johnston, residing at No. 363 Adams street, was aroused from sleep by an unusual noise, as if some person was trying to get out of the lower portion of his house, by endeavoring to unlock the back door. Mr. Johnston discovered a negro running from the rear of the building, upon whom he immediately fired. The robber passed out through a side gate and disappeared. It is thought that he was wounded, as blood was discovered the next morning on the fence over which the negro retreated. Upon examination it was discovered that the robber had entered the storeroom by a window, the lower sash being taken out. A large lot of preserves, etc., were placed in convenient reaching distance from the outside, which would no doubt, have been carried off by the robber, had not Mr. Johnston frightened him off as above mentioned.

WILL THERE BE A REACTION?—The probability is that there will be, for folks generally are either engaged in politics, money making or talking about their neighbors, but when Dan Castello's big show comes along nothing else will be talked of for some time. There are to be three hundred men and horses, perhaps three hundred horses, but we don't vouch for this. There will be a brilliant street pageant with chariots got up for the occasion. A wooden lion will be exhibited on top of a chariot, and a living one will be turned lose to scare the females and children. Inside the pavilion, which will be immense, Colonel Hall will enter the lion's den and slosh around with raw meat in a very interesting way. He will also nurse the baby elephant. During these performances the public will have an opportunity to hear the hippopotamus snort, and to study natural history as illustrated by a great collection of beasts, birds and reptiles, including monkeys and Arab troops, and several educated horses. The whole will conclude with the performance of comic mules, beautiful equestriennes, Arabs, clowns, jumpers, ringmasters and other individuals. There has not been such a show for a long time here, and we have no doubt that it will gratify the taste and improve the minds of our community.

The New York Bulletin says:

Though reports are current in the street of less disposition on the part of certain bank managers to grant accommodation to either speculative or mercantile borrowers, on the basis of the low rates of last week, yet we find that the floating supply of capital at those figures is very considerably in excess of the requirements of the market, and all new advances continue to be made at 3@4 per cent. on call, and 5@6 per cent per annum in the best discount form, as the ruling prices. Commercial paper, grading from prime to good, sixty days to four months, passes at 6@7 per cent. per annum. Other grades meet with very little favor at any figures. The city banks make a better return of last week's business than had been generally anticipated. They show a handsome absolute increase in their resources, the legal tender reserve having been enlarged $1,724,874, the specie reserve $686,024, and the deposit line $4,289,799. The loans have been augmented $2,346,899, while the circulation has been cut down $4,866. The Sub-Treasury balances were increased $1,448,648 last week, the receipts of the office having been $16,927,245, against payments of $15,478,597. The issue of coin certificates last week was $405,000. The city bank clearances last week averaged $72,617,897, and the balances $2,341,163 a day. The clearances to-day were $84,762,399, and the balances $3,307,095.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
TUESDAY, September 17, 1867.

The cotton market was more active yesterday, and the inquiry did not seem to be limited to any particular style. A few bales of middling were sold at 23c, which was about the outside figure; other styles were taken to a small amount on that basis. Receipts for the day, 92 bales. Shipments, 17 bales.

RIVER NEWS.

AVALANCHE OFFICE,
TUESDAY, September 17.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

We had a pleasant shower on Sunday, but yesterday was clear and hot. The Ohio river is falling, with the water lower in front of Evansville than at any time since 1865. The upper Mississippi falls steadily, and boats are delayed at many places, while the lower rapids are impassable for regular packets. The Arkansas is falling rapidly, but is cutting out. The Ozark found thirty inches to Pine Bluff and twenty-six inches to Little Rock. White river has four feet to Duvall's Bluff, and falling. There is but six feet on Phillips' bar, and six and a half feet on other points to Cairo.

IN PORT.

Commercial, St. Patrick, Des Arc, Ozark, Pilgrim, Myrtle, Natoma.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The ship carpenters and caulkers of Cairo are on a strike. We hope that our steamboat friends who have work to do will note the fact.

The Henry Adkins was hard aground in Davis' bend on her down trip.

The Olive Branch was aground above Lake Providence and had to be helped off by the H. M. Shreve. This latter steamer passed up on Saturday night. She had on board a lot of military prisoners from Vicksburg, who were on their way to Little Rock. They were guarded by a squad of soldiers. The captain of the guard died suddenly before reaching this port and was buried below here. His effects were turned over to the Quartermaster at this place.

A life saving boat has been invented for steamers, which can be used as a sofa, settee or couch. It can be instantly transformed into a life boat, already provided with provisions, fresh water, oars, and pump, and nothing is required but to place it in the water. For the purpose of seating passengers this apparatus can be furnished in a very convenient form, and at less cost than the sofas in ordinary use, taking in account the number of persons which can be seated on each. Almost every steamer can conveniently afford room for several of them, without occupying other places than those ordinarily appropriated for seating passengers. Will some body please cross the Atlantic in one of them.

Mr. A. S. Cunningham has resigned the Secretaryship of the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship line, and Mr. Austin R Moore has succeeded him.

The following orders are published by the Health Officer at Vicksburg:

The Yazoo river packets may remove recently delivered freight from the lower quarantine station, under the following regulations:

I. After the removal of said freight, to have no communication with the city of Vicksburg on the upward bound trip, nor permit any one on board to do so.

II. In order to return to the city of Vicksburg, each boat must, immediately after discharging its freight at the port of delivery be completely cleansed, the hull thrown open to the air, and disinfectants be freely used about the decks and in the hull.

The certificate of the Health Officer at this port, that its sanitary condition is unexceptionable, will enable each vessel to proceed to the wharf-boat at Vicksburg. A saturated solution of the permanganate of potassa, or sulphate of iron, freely used about the vessel, will completely destroy all deleterious organic matter. The former is the neatest.

The Commercial brought out the first bale of cotton from Clarendon. It was raised by Major Jack Hays. The officers of the Norman offered the Major many times the price of this bale if he would ship it to Louisville, but he preferred to ship it to those whom he knew, and in whom he had the utmost confidence. He shipped it to Toof, Phillips & Co., of Front row. Captain Ashford, true to his word, will award the prize offered by them to Major Hays.

The Virginia, Captain Dubb, will be in port, to leave for New Orleans, at ten a.m. to-day.

The Henry Ames passed up yesterday, with a good trip. The Lady Gay also passed up in the afternoon.

The St. Patrick, Captain Garret Huls, will leave to-day for Vicksburg and the bends. She is one of the finest boats afloat. Dr. Clay Rice is chief clerk.

The Southerner passed up yesterday. She got out her papers at this port.

The gay little Pilgrim arrived yesterday from St. Louis. She leaves at five p.m. to-day for Little Rock and way points. Captain Ike Whittaker, formerly of the Guidon, is master, and Captain J. Lee Finney is clerk.

The "old reliable" will back out this evening for White river. Captain Ashford commands and Charley Smithers, assisted by Mr. Robinson, does the honors of the office.

Captain C. C. Morton, of the Commercial, remained in Arkansas this trip, on a visit to his family.

The Belle Memphis had not arrived at dark last evening. She will be in, however, by this morning, and leave in ten o'clock a.m. for Cairo and St. Louis. Captain Heminway commands, and George Deane is clerk.

The fine steamer City of Alton will leave at five p.m. for St. Louis. Sam. McPheeters is master and Mr. McCreight clerk.

Captain Nolan ("long may he wave") came into port yesterday morning with his neat light draught steamer Ozark. The Ozark made a quick and profitable trip, bringing out of the Arkansas river eighty bales cotton, considerable miscellaneous freight, and a cabin full of passengers. She is again loading for Little Rock, and will leave immediately.

The Virginia, Captain Duble, will be in port to leave for New Orleans at ten a.m. to-day.

The Natoma shoves off this evening, at five o'clock, for Marriana and all the way landings on St. Francis river.

The Des Arc came in from St. Louis, after spending fifty-five hours on a sand bar. She goes into the Vicksburg trade to stay as a regular Tuesday packet, carrying the United States mail.

We learn that the Luminary, which got off the bar at Phillips', by the aid of the Adam Jacobs, is again aground, at Point Pleasant.

The Kellogg is still at Phillips', but had got all her barges off but one.

The Myaii is aground at 34, at which point the Des Arc found seven and a half feet.

A Card.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods on store.

The sheds will be divided into fire proof compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and who may have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The proximity of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one drayage on all cotton sent for compressment from other warehouses, while on all cotton in our warehouse for compressment there can be two drayages saved, since it would be as easy for us to transfer it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

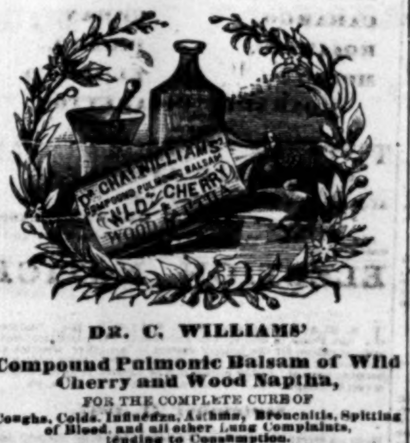
The Greatest Cough Remedy Ever Discovered.



DR. C. WILLIAMS'

Compound Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naptha,

FOR THE COMPLETE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, and all other Lung Complaints, tending to Consumption.

READ! READ! READ!

THIS justly celebrated preparation is recommended by some of the most learned and intelligent physicians in the country, and will be found far superior to any remedy for the cure of all diseases of the respiratory organs. All persons who have used it for Asthma, Cough, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Croup or Hives, Consumption, Pain, Soreness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the Breast and Lungs, attest to its superior efficacy in the most qualified terms.

BRONCHITIS, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of Consumption, is promptly relieved and cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease, (Bronchitis) are Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness, Soreness of the Throat or Lungs, Asthma, Hectic Fever, accompanied with spitting of phlegm or matter, and sometimes blood. It is an inflammation of the membrane which lines the inside of the whole of the wind tubes or air vessels which run through every part of the lungs. This Pulmonic Balsam immediately suppresses the Cough and Pain, subdues the inflammation and fever, removes the difficulty of breathing, by producing a free and easy expectoration so that a cure is soon effected. It always cures ASTHMA. Two or three doses will cure the CROUP or HIVES of children in a few minutes, and it is remarkable how prompt it is in subduing the violence of HOOPING COUGH, and effecting a speedy cure, and many who have been given up by their physicians as incurable in Consumption, have been restored to perfect health by it.

☞ Sold by all Druggists in Memphis and everywhere in the South and West. se8

TEXAS TONIC SYRUP

A Vegetable Compound for the Rapid and Never Failing Cure of

CHILLS & FEVER OR FEVER & AGUE

Every Poison has its Antidote---Every Disease has its Cure!

THE people of the Mississippi Valley, and throughout the entire South, have long felt the necessity for, and want of, a SAFE, CERTAIN AND RELIABLE REMEDY, as a substitute for Quinine, Strychnine, and other poisonous Drugs, for the cure of Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever. We claim, and the results will show, and bear ample testimony to every unprejudiced mind, that the Texas Tonic Syrup has supplied this want and accomplished this purpose. Its Tonic, Alterative and Antiseptic qualities are such that none can possibly be disappointed in its effects. Upon its own merits, therefore is it sustained. A single trial is all that is needed to stamp this remedy as the greatest specific of the age.

The ingredients of which this Medicine is composed are simple productions of nature abounding upon certain streams in the State of Texas, and were ever used by the Aborigines of that State as a specific for Fevers of all kinds, and especially Fever and Ague, which they never failed to cure.

A celebrated physician, acquainted with these facts, has furnished us his theory upon this important subject, and hence the product properly named TEXAS TONIC SYRUP, which we now offer to the public as a specific and POSITIVE cure for Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever, no matter of how long standing.

Having had indubitable evidence of its prompt and certain effects from the testimony of a multitude of respectable citizens, we do not hesitate to recommend this preparation in all cases of Fever and Ague and Chills and Fever; indeed, from the facts in our possession of its intrinsic value, it would not be too much for us to state that when the directions are strictly complied with we warrant a cure in every case, where it is tried. It is pleasant to the taste and the cheapest Medicine in the world. Therefore, in truth, it may be declared the day is not far distant when it must be appreciated and used in every household where Fever and Ague or Chills and Fever is found to exist.

THIS GREAT REMEDY FOR ALL

DISEASES OF THE STOMACH

IS the discovery of the inventor of COE'S valuable Cough Balsam, while experimenting for his own health. It cured cramp in the Stomach for him which before had yielded to nothing but chloroform.

The almost daily testimony from various parts of the country encourage us to believe there is no disease caused by a disordered stomach it will not speedily cure.

PHYSICIANS INDORSE AND USE IT

Ministers Give Testimony of its Efficacy!

And from all directions we receive tidings of cures performed

Dyspepsia!
It is sure to cure
Heartburn!
One dose will cure.
Sick-Headache!
It has cured in hundreds of case
Headache and Dizziness!
It stops in thirty minutes.
Acidity of the Stomach!
It corrects at once.
Rising of the Food!
It stops immediately.
Distress after Eating!
One dose will remove.
Cholera Morbus!
Rapidly yields to a few doses.
Bad Breath!
Will be changed with half a bottle.

IT IS PERFECTLY HARMLESS!

Its unprecedented success is owing to the fact that it cures by assisting nature to re-assert her sway in the system.

Nearly every dealer in the United States sells it at ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 16.—A special says there is good authority for believing that the President intends attempting to reopen the registration in Southern States and postpone the elections.

Collector Smythe and 'ex Collector Barney, of New York, who have been here for several days, have in their interview with the President urged the retention of Secretary McCulloch in his present position, and both have received assurances from the President that he had no intention of displacing him.

NEW ORLEANS, September 15.—A special to the Eastern Press says General Griffin was only taken ill on Wednesday, and yesterday morning his symptoms were reported more favorable; but the disease took a bad turn last night. He died before noon.

General Grant has assigned Brevet Major General Jas. Reynolds, on the Rio Grande, to the command of the District of Texas, thus made vacant, and Brevet Major General C. Mower, who is at New Orleans, to the temporary command of the Department of the Gulf.

General Frank Wheaton, who is sick with fever at New Orleans, is reported better to-day.

NEW YORK, September 16.—A Mexico City correspondent, of August 25, says considerable canvassing and excitement followed the call made by President Juarez for a general election. Factions were active, and the opposition were neglecting no opportunity to diminish the chances of President Juarez. The latter is in favor of so amending the Mexican Constitution as to make it like that of the United States. He is in favor of allowing the clergy to vote and be voted for; of having two houses of Congress, and making the Ministers report to the Executive, as is done in the United States.

PARIS, September 15.—The fortifications of Strasburg are to be extended and strengthened.

FLORENCE, September 15.—The Italian Government threatens to commence legal proceedings against Garibaldi if he persists in his preparations for a hostile attack upon Rome.

LISBON, September 15.—The mail steamer from Rio Janeiro has arrived at this port. She brings the intelligence that the allied South American forces have gained some recent advantages over the Paraguayans. Just before the steamer left news reached Rio Janerio that the allies had captured Corrumbia and seriously threatened the strongly fortified position of the Paraguayans at Kulayti.

Santa Anna's trial is daily expected to take place. His counsel will be the same gentleman who defended Maximilian. The general impression is that he will not be executed, but his estates will be confiscated.

The roads are being successfully cleared of robbers, and a large conduct of specie had gone down to Vera Cruz.

LETTER FROM LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN

The Beauty of the Scenery—Lake Seclusion—Nourma Falls—Reminiscences of the Battles in the Neighborhood.

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN HOUSE, September 10, 1867.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: I have found this retreat one of the most delightful places it has ever been my good fortune to visit. In our airy location, whose imposing altitude is in the skies, and where the clouds have their lofty seat, we enjoy a cool and delicious atmosphere that is in delightful contrast with the intense heats that burn and sear the valley far below our feet. The calmness of repose here finds its most charming home. Situated far above the hum and bustle of active life, we look down on the wearying, toiling world, and congratulate ourselves on our indolence and utter contentment. There is an indescribable charm in the exquisite dolce far niente we enjoy in this pure, mountain air, that is unexcelled anywhere else on earth. The magnificent views, the histor cal valleys, the wonderful stretches of mountain, hill and valley; the charming glimpses of scenery, and the attractive vistas of incomparable landscape, cannot be surpassed. A peculiarity of our life here is that we never tire of the magnificent v ews which stretch before our vision and seem to be ever changing and illimitable. Numerous resorts that have special features of great interest in them, are situated in the vicinity. Of these one of the most noted is Lake Seclusion and its surroundings. It is seven miles from the hotel, and is easy of access by good mountain roads. The vicinity has the following peculiarities: A mountain stream—the Tetmanga (meaning the river of little lakes,) comes down through a deep gorge between two large mountain ranges, and leaps over a series of steps that are about forty feet from the summit to the pool or lake. The rocky sides to this Lake Seclusion are about sixty to a hundred feet in hight. The edges yawn far over the cavernous recesses which lie far below. The little lake lies in a cauldron like pot that is a hundred feet in width, and completely invested with rocks. The outlet of the waters is by numerous avenues, which pass beneath a rugged, broken barrier of rocks, that, centuries ago, fell from the cliffs on each side, and in their present position have been worn away by the water until many cavernous courses were formed. The stream continues its shallow course over a smooth bed of rocks, and a short distance from the lake it makes a leap of a hundred and ten feet into a rocky receptacle. These falls during an ordinary stage of water make the leap in several thread-like streamlets, some of which reach the bottom in spray. The effect of the fall is exceedingly pleasing, and lulls the beholder into an exquisite feeling of repose. The surroundings are exceedingly romantic and beautiful, though the various points of observance and views are very difficult of access. I cannot discover the Indian name of this charming and curious place. Various names have been given to it by the innumerable parties who have visited the place. Our little party voted that as I was the sketcher and historian of the picnic and excursion, that they should be henceforth known as Nourma Falls. So mote it be.

From the immense cavernous gorge below, the view is one of extraordinary grandeur. Nearly every portion of it is almost constantly in shade, and therefore an occasional streak of sunlight is a welcome curiosity. The cliffs on either side rise high and higher, until their gray granite crests seem to be the eagle's perches far up in the clouds, and whence the outer world can be seen. Along the course of the steam, as it goes laughing and tinkling over its rocky bed and through hidden recesses, a tortuous channel has been cut through the grand gorge and mountain pass. One of the world's wonders here presents itself. From the southern cliff an immense rock, of two hundred feet thickness, once overhung the stream, nearly reaching across the gorge. The under surface was cavernous, and cove ed a space of perhaps two acres. The wearing of the waters and the disintegrating effects of time and at the la t, perhaps an earthquake shock caused this immense, ponderous mass of rock to fall from its attachments and crush its way into the gorge far below. It nearly obstructs the whole width of the ravine. Underneath it, are numerous cavernous avenues, that pass from its upper to its lower edge. The crash of such a huge substance must have been terrible. That many centuries have elapsed since the occurrence, is evident from the weather-worn surfaces of the gap, where the rock was detached. Beyond this—Barrier rock—the waters rush over its thousand cascades and finally leap into the valley and find rest in the Chattanooga creek, that winds like a silver thread in the far off distance.

Eagle cliff looks loftily down on this rugged and wonderful scene. From its craggy points, which are situated two thousand feet up in the sky, there are some of the grandest views visible that the earth furnishes. The entire surface of the battlefields of Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge, Chattanooga and Lookout mountain are very plainly visible from the point. The dark, thickly wooded and lonely depths of Chickamauga looks as gloomy and as uninviting now as they did that day when we won the battle and lost the Confederacy. The dark and bloody field looks as uninviting now as it did when shot and shell marred its fields and forests, and smoke and blood and wearisome battle sickened our bodies and souls.

Northward, the thinly wooded face of Missionary ridge stretches before the vision. From this grand view, the memories of the past can be recalled, as point after point rises to view. Memory takes me back to that bright day in November, 1863, when all the valley below seemed a moving blue field. Then the hosts of a world were marshalled to do battle against a thin, gray misty line, that lay like an attenuated, broken cordon along the crest of the ridge. Then the shout and yell and shot and crash of battle, the smoke and thunder of booming guns, the rush and retreat, lines swaying back and forth, the lull and storm, the exultant charge, the sullen retreat. Then how the masses moved with banners flying, and thundering up the hill, they were met by that Stonewall division of the West, whe.e Cleburne and his invincibles held guard. Hurled back again and again, the hosts in blue assailed the heights, but only to leave their torn and mangled thousands on the bloody field. Until Wright came, the unbroken stonewall held position in front of the tunnel and saved the Army of Tennessee f.om utter rout and destruction. As it does to night, flooding the field with a silver light, in whose weird penciling and long, spectral shadows the poet could weave wonderful fancies, and the historian find inspiration, the moon rides up in the bright and lovely sky, rivalling the splendor and sunny light, that shines as calmly by day on that once hideous field of battle, as though no horrible scenes were ever enacted on the smiling hillside.

"Then the soft moon rose up slowly,
And calmly looked she down
On the red sands of the battle field,
With bloody corpses strown;
Yes, calmly, on that dreadful scene,
Her pale light seemed to shine."

Many of our comrades there sleep the sleep that knows no waking. On yonder hill slope and crest, we made their graves and laid them there, those soldiers of the Confederacy, which, though it be dead, yet lives, and will remain green in our memory forever. Theodore O'Hara, the brave soldier, wrote their epitaph, and the grand words answer for his own:

"On fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread,
And glory guards with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead."

L. Q. C. LAMAR, Professor.

THE course of study is completed in two terms of nine months each.
The method of instruction is that of oral examinations, daily, upon the text, accompanied by such explanations and lectures as State legislation and local adjudications have made necessary.
Moot courts will be held weekly, in which the practice will conform in every essential respect to the rules, mode of procedure and argumentation adopted in the following Courts:

1. District Court of the United States.
2. Circuit Court of the United States.
3. Supreme Court of the United States.
4. Circuit Court of Mississippi.
5. Chancery Court of Mississippi.
6. Probate Court
7. High Court of Errors and Appeals.

The Law Library numbers not less than one thousand volumes.
The Law Students have the privilege of attending, FREE OF CHARGE, the Lectures and Recitations in any of the departments of Science and Literature in the University.
The sessions of the Federal Court, and of the High Court of Errors and Appeals, held at Oxford, give the students of this school peculiar advantages.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of two pluries executions, issued from the Law Court of the city of Memphis, Shelby county, State of Tennessee, at the June term, 1866, one in favor of O. R. Easley vs. W. L. Maxwell and M. J. Turner; judgment July 14, 1866, for four hundred and thirty-eight dollars and sixty-seven cents, with interest and cost; the other in favor of M. S. Talbot vs. K. Garrett and W. L. Maxwell; judgment July 12, 1866, for nine hundred and thirty-nine dollars and twenty cents in cash, with interest and cost. I will sell to the highest bidder in cash, at the door of the Law Court, in the city of Memphis, on the 23d of September, 1867, the following described tract of land, to-wit: Lying and being in the county of Shelby, State of Tennessee, on the waters of Wolf river, the same being a part of a five thousand acre grant, made by the State of Tennessee to John Strother and John Gooch, on the 17th day of May, 1839, and numbered 1,608, and which said six hundred and ten acres of land is bounded as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a red oak, the southeast corner of the Gooch and Strother five thousand acre grant, running north eighty-one chains seventy-eight links to a stake, twenty-five links south, twenty seven and half degrees east of a hickory marked A; thence west until the dividing line between this and the five hundred and three acre tract purchased of John Osborne by Mary Ann Maxwell, wife of the said William L. Maxwell, on the 1st day of November, A.D. 1852, is reached at a stake thirteen links south of post oak marked M; thence south twelve degrees east, chains and nine links south, twelve degrees east of a post oak marked M; thence east twenty one chains eighty-five links to a stake seven links north, forty five degrees east of a red oak marked M; thence south fifty-four chains seventy-eight links to a stake forty-nine links south, twelve and a half degrees west of a post oak marked M, on the south boundary line of the Gooch and Strother five thousand acre survey; the same being the southern termination of the dividing line between the six hundred and ten acre tract; and the said five hundred and three acre tract; thence east to the beginning corner. Being the same conveyed by John Osborne to W. L. Maxwell, by deed dated March 12, 1853, registered in book forty, part first, pages 551, 552, etc., of the Register's office of Shelby county, to which reference is here made.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of trust to me executed by Thomas S. Jackson on the 14th day of October, 1859, (which deed is of record in the Register's office of Shelby county, in book No. 40, part first, pages 128, 129 and 130,) to secure to J. M. Brooks the prompt payment at maturity of two notes therein specified, and whereas said notes have long since become due and remain unpaid: now, therefore, by virtue of the power in me vested by said trust conveyance, I will,

On Monday, 7th of October, 1867, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p m., at the southeast corner of Court Square, in the city of Memphis, proceed to sell to the highest bidder, for cash, the property in said deed conveyed, described as follows, to wit: Lying and being in the city of Memphis and known as lot No. 400 on the plan of said city, and beginning at a stake on Washington street at a point where Robins and Law's southeastern corner is fixed on said street, (its north side) in a deed made to said Brooks by John M. Lea and his wife Elizabeth, which deed is of record in the Register's office in book 18, pages 218 and 219, to which reference is here made; thence from this point so fixed east sixty-one feet and with the north side of Washington street to said Brooks' southwestern corner on said street; thence on and with said Lea and wife's west boundary line 148½ feet to an alley; thence west 61 feet parallel with Washington street to a stake; thence south 148½ feet parallel with said Lea and wife's west line to the beginning.

Terms cash. Title believed to be good, but I convey only as trustee. The equity of redemption is especially waived.
sel S. P. READ, Trustee.

Notice.

J. W. Woltering vs. G. Carroll.
THE plaintiff, on affidavit that the defendant is indebted to him, and is a non-resident of this State, having obtained from P. H. Heinrich, a Justice of the Peace, an original attachment against the estate of the defendant, returnable before the said P. H. Heinrich on the 15th day of August, 1867, and the same having been levied on the defendant's property, it is ordered that the defendant do appear before the said P. H. Heinrich, Justice of the Peace, on the 21st day of September, 1867, at his office in Memphis, to defend said attachment suit, or it will be proceeded with ex parte; it is further ordered that this notice be published in the Memphis Avalanche for four consecutive weeks.

GROVER & BAKER'S

CELEBRATED

ELASTIC STITCH & LOCK STITCH

SEWING MACHINES

Why the Grover & Baker Machine is Best.

1. It is more simple, durable, and less liable to derangements than others.
2. It sews from ordinary spools, and no rewinding of thread is necessary.
3. It sews with equal facility all fabrics, the most delicate and heaviest, and with all kinds of thread alike, cotton or linen.
4. Its seam is so strong and elastic that it never breaks, even on the bias.
5. It fastens both ends of the seam by its own operation.
6. Its seam, though cut at every sixth inch, remains firm, and neither runs nor ravels in wear.
7. Its seam is more plump and beautiful, and retains its plumpness and beauty after washing better than any other.
8. Its seam can be removed in altering garments, after proper instruction, without picking or cutting them.
9. Watching and placing the tensions on the threads necessary in other machines, is unnecessary in this. The tension being once adjusted on the Grover & Baker machine, any amount of sewing may be done without change.
10. It makes beautiful embroidery without any change of arrangement, simply by inserting threads of suitable sizes and colors for this purpose. It is the only machine that both embroiders and sews perfectly.
